

SNÖ

A DANCE AND PUPPET PERFORMANCE INSPIRED BY SAPMI

The snow creaks and squeaks. The ice is cracking. The animals move across the landscape. Nature is self-evident, eternal and unadulterated. A source of energy and reflection.

The Sami languages has over 200 words for snow: melted snow, flying snow, sticky snow, hard snow, icy snow and more. Through dance and puppets, the Sami mountain world is shaped.

Thanks to a collaboration with Dans i Nord and a residence in Jokkmokk, Tittut this time draws inspiration in a magnificent mountain landscape with rich wildlife.

Selected 2022 for Bibu - the performing arts biennial for children & young people:

The audience is invited to a magical, mythical and airy fabulous world. With a fingertip-sensitive mix of mime and dance to evocative music, creaking snow and clinking ice, we travel through Sápmi's white landscape. A poetic performance about animals and nature, in a beautiful and integrated scenography, where every detail is carefully executed.

"Magical" is an overused word today - but "Snö" really offers gen on magical, scenic mountain poetry." Svenska Dagbladet

"With small funds, it will not just be a visual and musical performance, unspoken also conveys respect for nature and the life that goes on in the mountain world." Expressen

"... a rarely portrayed harmony between animals and humans. As a reminder of the importance of humility in the face of the wonders of nature." Dagens Nyheter
